PERSONAL TRAITS AND SKILLS

Honest and open communicator

I go forward in communication by expressing my thoughts and feelings honestly. Being grounded in my perspective, while still giving room for others to express themselves is something I value when communicating with others.

Goal-oriented

Expecting high standards for myself and striving to achieve them. Preferably in collaboration with others to achieve common goals.

Flexible in roles

Flexible in different roles. I can seamlessly and dynamically adapt to leading and being guided.

Patient and mindful

Patient when things don't go as expected or takes a long time. Focused to keep mindfulness and peace in chaotic and stressful situations.

Inclusive

Values an open, inclusive and social work environment for everyone.
